A World of Peace and Harmony

This is a little song to follow you and me.
It is a song for peace and harmony,
a happy tune to save in our phantasy,
a better place for you and me.
I see, a world of peace and harmony.

It's not too late to plant a tiny little tree.
And stop destroying our land and sea,
we have to save the blooming dreams in our phantasy,
a better place for you and me.
I see, a world of peace and harmony.

It's our turn to colour and paint the world,
to paint with phantasy.
Right now it's our turn to recreate the world,
come on, my friends, come on!

Oh let us care for everything that has to grow.
There is a way, together we must go.
There is a helping hand in our world of phantasy,
a better place for you and me.
I see, a world of peace and harmony.

It's our turn to colour and paint the world,
to paint with phantasy.
Right now it's our turn to recreate the world,
come on, my friends, come on!

So keep a little song however life will be.
There is a chance for peace and harmony,
a happy tune to save in our world of phantasy,
a better place for you and me.
I see, a world of peace and harmony.
